

This document contains the Connecticut regulations for Reciprocal agreements with other states. These regulations became effective on July 8, 2011. This document was prepared by the State of Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection and is provided for the convenience of the reader. This is not the official version of the regulations. The official regulations are published by the State of Connecticut, Judicial Branch, Commission on Official Legal Publications in the Connecticut Law Journal. In the event there is inconsistency between this document and the regulations as published in the Connecticut Law Journal, the Connecticut Law Journal publication will serve as the official version.

Sec. 15-140f-5. Reciprocal agreements with other states.

- (a) Any person who possesses a safe boating or a personal watercraft operation certificate issued by a state having an agreement of reciprocity with the Commissioner may present evidence of said certificate to satisfy the educational requirements, as described in Sections 15-140e and 15-140j of the Connecticut General Statutes, for the issuance of a Connecticut safe boating certificate or a certificate of personal watercraft operation.
- (b) Any person who is required to possess a safe boating certificate under Section 15-140e of the Connecticut General Statutes, or a certificate of personal watercraft operation under Section 15-140j of the Connecticut General Statutes, and who possesses a safe boating certificate or certificate of personal watercraft operation issued by a state having an agreement of reciprocity with the Commissioner, shall obtain a safe boating certificate or certificate of personal watercraft operation issued by the Commissioner within ninety days of becoming a resident of this state.